

Atle Torstensen:

- Graduated from Palmer College of Chiropractic 1993
- Private practice in Drammen and Kongsberg, Norway -93/-94, while working as team chiropractor for Drammen Handballclub, Aassiden Handballclub and Norwegian Track & Field National team.
- Private practice in Egersund, Norway from 1995.
- Working with several local and international teams and individual athletes in a multitude of sports.
- Part of AC Milan medical team for the last 4 seasons
- Norwegian Chiropractic Association Chiropractor of the year -2006
- International Chiropractor of the Year-The Masters Circle -2010
- Teaching seminars in chiropractic adjusting techniques in 9 countries since 2003
- Founded and developed the Eureka chain of Chiropractic Offices together with Dr. Haavard Rognerud. The chain now consists of 13 offices in Norway and Sweden.
- Is now a part of the Klinik for Alle chain of chiropractic offices.

Essay form:

Atle Torstensen has been in private practice in Norway for over 25 years. He has over the years treated a lot of individual athletes and teams both in Norway and internationally and has been a part of the AC Milan medical team for four seasons. He has been teaching seminars in adjusting techniques of the spine and extremities all over the world for the past 15 years. Atle Torstensen was voted Norwegian Chiropractic Association chiropractor of the year in -06 and TMC International Chiropractor of the year in 2010. He is one of the founders of the Eureka chain of chiropractic offices and helped develop the chain up until the start of this year. He is currently working with the Klinik for Alle chain of offices, helping them to develop their brand.